SAN FRANCISCO

Legal Advocates For The Rights of Policyholders

For more than 20 years, Pillsbury & Levinson, LLP has exclusively represented policyholders in claims against insurance companies. We handle all varieties of insurance, and have special expertise in denial of disability claims, ERISA claims, duty to defend cases and collecting excess judgments. We are routinely engaged to provide advice in underlying cases, i.e., construction defect or personal injury, where coverage is in dispute. We frequently appear in mediations in those cases to advocate for coverage. With a record number of our attorneys selected for the 2012 Northern California Super Lawyers® list, the firm remains committed to ensuring policyholders' rights are protected at all times.
